UNSATISFACTORY RACING.

BEN BAN, AN OUTSIDER, WINS THE TOBOGGAN HANDICAP.

Smoker Takes the Juvenile Stakes-Good and Plenty Gets Stuck in a Bog and Is Beaten by Coligny.

New York, May 11,-The climax of unsatisfactory racing was reached today at Belmont Park when Good and Plenty, the best steeplechaser of his time, if not the best ever seen in this country, was defeated in an overnight jumping race at two miles. from the barn of J. E. Widener, which has been chasing Good and Plenty for two years, was his conqueror, but there was an excuse to offer for Good and Plenty. In the approach to the jump in the middle of the big turn, there is a bad place in the course which the recent rains had reduced to a bog and in the last time around Good and Plenty got into this soft spot and stuck there. He was leading at the time and running easily, but before he could get clear Coligny had passed him and held lead to win. Good and Plenty looked well, wed speed, and fenced well except in one instance, but may have been a bit short, though Ray was only cantering when he struck the bog. It was Good and Plenty's first defeat since the first race he ran at the Brighton summer meeting of 1904, when he ran second to Walter Cleary. It was Ray's first losing ride on the big horse and he took the defeat very much to heart. It appeared to be bad judgment on the part of Ray to allow Good and Plenty to encounter the trouble he did. In the first time around, Realm, which was leading Good and Plenty, almost went down in the same spot, but Ray did not profit by this lesson. The defeat of Good and Plenty was keenly regretted by the as there is no more popular horse racing than g son of Rossington.

But upsets were in order throughout the card. The Newcastle stable won the first two races with Saracinesca and Wave Crest and these were the only favorites to win. Frank R. Hitchcock turned loose what may prove to be a real smasher in Smoker, which won the Juvenile Stakes, beating the red hot favorite Sanguíne, from R. T. Wilson. Smoker is by Yankee, out of Smoke, and showed a high class performance, though there was little evidence that it was anticipated by the stable, as he went to the post at 15 to 1.

Halifax was another hot one bowled over. The Handsel horse was heavily backed for the Toboggan Handleap, but was never a contender. Ben Ban, from the Duryea stable, which went to the post at 25 to 1, ran by the pacemakers in the final furlong to win easily from Pantoufle at 50 to 1. Mr. Duryea did not expect to bet on Ben Ban, but at the last minute thought better of it, sending in a commission of $500, three ways. The result was truly a "bookmaker's delight."

The track was very bad, as the mud was sticky and holding. A high wind swept over the course which blew up the straight track over which three of the races were run, and this would help to acand clear it was cold. The card was badly cut up by scratches

A capital card is offered for Monday afternoon and with such good horses as Tanya, King's Daughter, Belle of Pequest; Marbles, Sussex, Bounding Elk: Vervane. Transvaal, Alauda; Dandelion, Good Luck, Frank Gill; Rye, Shenandoah, and Entree, among the enexcellent racing will be witnessed if the weather and track should improve.

POLAR STAR WINS GREAT JUBILEE.

Thirteenth Victory for W. Hall Walker's Unbeaten Son of Pioneer-Go On.

London, May 11.-The Great Jubilee Handicap of $15,000 for three-year-olds and upward at one mile and a quarter over the Jubilee Course at Kempton Park, was won today by W. Hall Walker's unbeaten Polar Star, with the Duke of Devonshire's four-year-old chestnut colt by Marco-Lady Villikins second and R. J. Farquharson's seven year-old Dalkeith third. There were twelve start-ers. This was Polar Star's first start as a threeyear-old and the thirteenth of his career. He won all of his twelve races last year, taking $29,685. He is a chestnut colt by Pioneer, out of Go On.

HUGHES SELLS FIVE HORSES.

Lexington, Ky., May 11 .- Before shipping to Louisville Grover Hughes disposed of the follow ing thoroughbreds to C. F. Stuhlmiler and V. C. Perkins, of Sioux Rapids, Iowa: The Squaw Man, Jennie Oxley, Jessamy Bride, Scotch Kiss and Rossessa. These horses will be raced at fairs through lowa and Kansas and next spring will be retired to the stud.

TRACKS TO PAY $35.00 PER DAY.

Lexington, Ky., May 11 .- The State Racing Commission with all the members present excepting Charles F. Grainger, of Louisville, at a special meetting here today, adopted a resolution requiring each racetrack in the state to pay to the commission $35 for each day's racing. This amount was allowed the commission by the bill creating the body and is for the running expenses of the commission.

MORE SUSPENSIONS AT OAKLAND. DR. GARDNER IS REPORTED AILING.

Roy Offutt Is Requested Not to Make Book-His Horses Under the Ban.

Oakland, Cal., May 11 .- Today's card was attractive. Superior class horses were engaged and it produced excellent sport. Public favorites raced in improved form, four of them-Pal, Byronerdale, Kercheval and Sir Brillar-rewarding their backers. Indications of the probable victory of the Burns Handicap winner in the handicap at one mile and fifty yards were plentiful during the betting that race. Kercheval, ridden by Gullett, was backed from 5 to 1 to 13 to 5, and the horse was good and so far outclassed his opponents that the crude stable lad could not throw the race away had he wanted to. Only a sane few, however, profited by the success of Conran's horse and it evoked plenty of criticism.

The stewards said today that it was not intended that Jockey C. Ross should be included in the edict of suspension announced yesterday. The diminutive lightweight rider is in good standing and rode today, landing three horses second and two unplaced out of five mounts.

The stewards held a meeting tonight in San Francisco and announced the suspension of trainer C. A. Ross, owner C. C. Gill, and the horse Marshal Ney. Entries of John Lyle, Mintia, Bribery, Belle of Port land, Taylor George, Sunray, Sun Mark, Sanfara, Silver Wedding, Kinsman and Creston Boy were ordered refused and Roy Offutt, to whom these horses belong, was requested not to make book or operate at the track of the New California Jockey Club. Important developments in the Hunter case are Barney Schreiber will not looked for on Monday. race his local string at Seattle.

A good average program is offered for Monda; and, with Sadie H., Herives, Dally; Bonar, Robert and, with Sadie H., Herives, Dairy, Bohar, Robert Mitchell, Adirondack; Nabonassar, Red Reynard, W. B. Gates; Colonel Jewell, Alma Boy, Fury; F. Neugent, Canique, Silver Stocking; The Mist, Lem Reed and Tarp showing in the entries, the racing should be fully up to the standard.

NEALON PAYS HIS WAY.

Nealon, the four-year-old brown colt by Sain Sister Josephine, owned by C. E. Durnell and B. Schreiber, and racing in the name of the former, being pointed by W. A. McKinney, his present trainer, for the Brooklyn Handicap, which be run at Gravesend next Sáturday. Nealon ran a good race for his new trainer in the Metropolitan last Thursday, and he will be carefully handled in preparation for the Brooklyn, Suburban and Brighton Beach handicaps, his weight for these races being 114, 113 and 115 pounds respectively.

Nealon has run a number of good races since his first start at the Fair Grounds in St. Louis, June 9, 1905 for Mr. Schreiber, who bred the colt at his Missouri farm and raced him in his name, trained by H. R. Brandt until December 13, 1906, when he sold an interest in the colt to C. E. Durnell, who since has been his trainer until leaving for Europe a week ago. Nealon's last race for Schreiber was over the two and one-quarter miles course in the Belmont Park Autumn Weight for Age Race, when he finished second to Running Water, after setting all the pace and was only beaten by a nose running a wonderful race. He has run twice in the Burns Handicap and once for each of the following well known handicaps: Family Club, Munic ipal, Jerome, Occidental, Oceanview, Hotel Gayoso, and the California Derby, all of which he failed to win, the only near-win being the California Derby where he finished second to Good Luck, at Oakland, February 22, 1906. He won the Dolphin Stakes at Sheepshead Bay, September 4, 1906, and three days later chipped three-fifths of a second off the track record in winning the Turf Handicap over the turf course of a mile and a quarter, running it in 2:05% At the same track on the 12th he won the mile and three-eighths race, and for the only time in his career making three straight wins. He is not partial to any kind of track conditions and can put up a good effort over any distance from the Futurity course to a mile and one-eighth. Herewith is given a record of his races and amount of mohey won.

ONE EVEN, THE OTHER OUT.

Just as the numbers were hoisted after the third race, a tall, thin man stopped and picked up a roll of bills on the floor of the betting ring. The roll contained $200 and, after the finder of i counted the money, he put it in his pocket, with the remark to some bystanders:

"This is good enough for me. I bet $200 on Roseben and now me for the trolley cars."

left the track so fast that a game of checkers could have been played on his coat tails. A few minutes later the man who lost the money running around the ring like a chicken with no head. "I cashed a bet on Glorifier for a woman in the grandstand, two hundred bucks, and I've lost it. She's hollerin' murder and if I don't find it I'll get pinched." A sudden inclination to scoot out of the place made the unfortunate fellow go so fast that he must have caught the trolley car that bore the finder of the coin away from the scene of slaughter .- New York Sun.

SEVEN $1,000 STAKES FOR BUTTE.

Butte, Mont., May 11.-Harry Stover announces list of seven stakes, with $1,000 added to each for the meeting of forty days to open here July 4. The entries to these stakes will close June 1.

Rumor Has it that He Will Not Start in the Brooklyn Handicap.

New York, May 11.-There is a rumor current tonight that Dr. Gardner has gone wrong and will not be a starter in the Brooklyn Handicap. This, however, does not apparently come from any of his people and it is to be hoped that it proves incorrect.

is the consensus of opinion that the Johnson-Sullivan—Farrell confederacy made a mistake in starting Roseben instead of Dr. Gardner for the Metropolitan Handicap, and likewise there are scores of horsemen who hold to the belief that the son of Bannockburn would most assuredly have been returned the winner of the feature at Belmont Park Thursday.
"You can say for me," said T. D. Sullivan,

"that if Dr. Gardner had started in this race he would have rolled home. He showed that he had it on Glorifier in the Excelsior, and as he is a mudlark he would have run the eyeballs out of McCormick's horse in the Metropolitan. On the result of this race let me predict right now that Dr. Gardner will win the Brocklein Her. now that Dr. Gardner will win the Brooklyn Handicap in a canter.'

"Dr. Gardner could have beaten Glorifier in a said Mattie Corbett. "It was too bad omp, they did not start this great horse."

C. J. Fitzgerald, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, says that unless Burgomaster comes back to the races Dr. Gardner gommster comes back to the races Dr. Gardier will be the horse of the year.

"The sloppy going beat Roseben in the big race Thursday," said Jack Martin last night. "He could not get to going freely and sprawled about just after the start. I thought the race was in when I reached the head of the stretch, but Roseben again floundered around in the sloppy going near the rail. On a dry track I think he would have won easily."

John A. Drake was at the track today for the first time this season. Asked the reason for his absence, Mr. Drake said: "I've been busy ironing out some kinks they put into me in Wall street.'

Trainers hereabout are complaining that one starter Cassidy's assistants is too handy with the bull whip.

The new track of the Maryland Jockey Club at Halethorpe is to be a mile and an eighth oval.
"If T. S. Martin is as much better than Sanctus as William Garth thinks he is," remarks a local critic, "Paul J. Rainey is going to win his share of the cross-country races this year."

Some folks say Dandelion will be a hard horse to beat in the Brooklyn Handicap, if the track is fast. W. W. Darden says the people in Nashville and Memphis are beginning to awaken to the industrial importance of racing since they have had to forego spring meetings, and he believes that the Foust will be eventually wiped off the Tennessee law statute books.

W. B. Jennings has taken up the seven two-yearolds he left in the care of John Hynes at his Connecticut farm during the winter, but says he does not intend to get them ready before the Saratoga meeting in August.

Salvidere is warmly admired by the work watchers at Belmont Park, and Madden says he has but one tip for the public concerning him-that is to back him every time he starts.

Citizen has been doing some shifty work for trainer Winslow and being a colt of considerable speed, is sure to show to advantage before the season is much further advanced.

since the Washington meeting, but is now working him for the races and he is about ready for his best effort.

King Cole is showing better condition in his work at Gravesend than he did in his races at Oakland. Sam Hildreth says he is ready for one of his best races. The Hamburg horse will want a heavy track to do it Running Water has been going along splendidly of late and will be a good mare when Welsh sends her to the post.

GOVERNOR FOLK SIGNS ELY BILL.

St. Louis, Mo., May 11.-Governor Folk has signed the Ely bill prohibiting the telephoning of bets on horse races into another state for registration. This bill was passed at the regular session of the legis lature, but without an emergency clause. after the adjournment of the regular session, annonncement was made of the intention to hold a meeting at Delmar Park from April 15 to June 15, and, under the decision of the Missouri Supreme Court in the Oldham case, telephone the bets into Iillnois or Arkansas to be registered. About the time of this announcement Governor Folk decided to reassemble the legislature and he urged the econd passage of the bill with an emergency clause in order to prevent the carrying out of plans for sixty days racing here.

STATUE OF "PITTSBURG PHIL."

A feature in Pittsburg on Memorial day will be the unveiling of the statue of George E. Smith, the noted horseman and plunger widely known as 'Pittsburg Phil," who died two years ago worth over $1,000,000. The statue will cost $4,000, and will surmount the $10,000 mausoleum built "Phil" in Uniondale Cemetery before his des in Uniondale Cemetery before his death and in which his remains lie. The statue is said to be a striking likeness of the dead man, a trifle over life-size, and depicts him bareheaded with a roll of papers in his right hand. The costume is the conventional Prince Albert suit. The statue is erected by Smith's mother, who has remarried since his death and is now Mrs. Eliza Woods.

FIRST FOUR NOSES APART.

THE MINKS WINS CLARK HANDICAP IN A SENSATIONAL FINISH.

Great Pirate Scores His Sixth Victory-Saul's Sudden Improvement-Phil Finch . Is Beaten-Holle Wins Two.

Louisville, Ky., May 11.—The Minks, owned by D. N. Prewitt, of Danville, won the Clark Handicap, named for Colonel M. Lewis Clark, the first president of the Louisville Jockey Club, at Churchill Downs this afternoon. It was one of the most sensational finishes since the inauguration of the race. The first four-The Minks, Brancas, Harry Scott and John L. Inglis—were only noses apart and striving their hardest for the $1,820 that went to the win-ner. Nearing the finish it appeared as if any one of the four would win, but Nicol, riding with his greatest skill, managed to get The Minks up in the closing stride. Brancas was probably best, but in the early stages he trailed a distant last. On the stretch turn be began moving up on the others with giant strides on the outside, but when going fastest, he was forced to be taken back and go to the inside on account of Harry Scott's swerving. This mishap was enough to cause his defeat. John L. Inglis performed impressively under his heavy impost and had he been kept close up through the backstretch, would have won. While rounding the stretch turn Harry Scott seemed a certain winner, but near the end his rider, becoming over-anxiou made the mistake of going to the whip which aused the horse to swerve.

Today's card was the best offering in years and the race-going public appreciated it by turning out in large numbers, the attendance breaking all previous records for a Saturday. In addition to the stake, a handicap steeplechase over the short course and a two year old race at four and a half furlongs which brought out a good field, held out much interest. In the latter Woodlane, Robert Tucker's good filly and a winner at Jamaica, met Great Pirate and Parisian Model, two of the cracks of the winter meetings at Hot Springs and New Orleans. The weight of her owner's money installed Woodlane favorite. Great Pirate ran into a long lead soon after the start and never left the issue in doubt, winning well in hand. After being prominent for a good way, Woodlane dropped back and allowed Ancient and Parisian Model to take second and third places.

Saul showed sudden improvement in the steeple-He led the others for the entire trip, winning as his rider pleased. He was backed into favoritism and his connections profited considerably by his vic-Naran and Lights Out had a hard tussle for tory. second money, which Naran took in the closing strides. Jockey Gaylor on Harlequin, was unseated at the second jump when the bridle became loosened.

The only winners of the afternoon to benefit the public were Saul and Polly Prim. The biggest upset in a speculative way came in the third race

Phil Finch, at a prohibitive price, falled to finish better than third to Cablegram and The Abbot. Phil Finch met with interference soon after the start. J. U. Strode and M. Boasberg will ship to Toronto next Wednesday. Jacquin, which was carded for the third race, had to be excused on account of lame-

If no more rain falls, the track will be good, if not fast, Monday afternoon and with Merry Blue, Lady Baldur, Hester Zorra; Boserrian, Funiculaire, te. Colonel Brady, Bill Herron; Fu of Fun, Magic, Pete Vinegar; Hannibal Bey, Barnsdale, Posing; Docile, Request and Redwood II., among the speedy horses entered, the racing should prove highly interesting.

J. L. Dempsey.

BUSY DAYS AT WOODBINE.

Toronto, Ont., May 11.-With the opening of the Ontario Jockey Club's meeting just one week the Woodbine track has become a busy place. Horses are arriving daily and by Monday or Tuesday there be few vacant stalls. Every stall has been allotted. The latest arrivals are the stables of John Pangle and William Mosby from Baltimore. The best work thus far shown by any candidate for the King's Plate was Photographer's mile and a quarter in 2:14 yesterday morning. expected that J. E. Seagram will furnish the winner in Assemblyman, this work by Photographer makes it appear that Adam Beck's horse will be a hard one to beat. Dutch Girl, the Dyment candidate, worked a mile in 1:48%, after bolting on the first turn. Denham is supposedly the best of the Hendrie candidates.

Several of those at the track were heard to rethat they did not like the way Temmeraire worked his mile in 1:45, but trainer John Dyment is well satisfied with the way the horse is coming along. He is not what might be called a good horse, but that he will race well there is no question. Tongorder and Court Martial of the Dyment string were sent three-quarters in 1:17. The Toronto Cup winner is in good fettle and acts like he will take some beating.

FULL BROTHER TO ROSEBEN.

Lexington, Ky., May 11.—There is a full brother to Roseben at Dixiana Farm. This youngster by Ben Strome-Roseleaf was foaled Thursday the day of the running of the Metopolitan ing, Handicap. Handicap. Major Carson is highly pleased with this foal, for he has had much bad luck with Roseleaf since Roseben's birth in 1901. In 1902 she was barren and the next year produced Blair Athol, a full brother to Roseben, which died. 1904 and 1905 she was barren.

SARATOGA SPECIAL NOMINATIONS.

Names of the Horses from Which the Field for the Big Jack Pot Will Come.

New York, May 11.-The fifty-seven horses from which the field for the seventh running of the Saratoga Special at Saratoga in August will come have been named as per the conditions of the big jack pot race. Nineteen subscriptions at $1,000, half forfeit, were taken, and three horses have been named to represent each subscription, but only one of each set of three can start, so the field will be limited to nineteen starters. It is hardly likely, however, that each subscription will be repre-sented. Say there are ten starters, then the race will be worth $14,500 in addition to the piece of gold plate valued at $2,500, which will be added by the Saratoga Association, and it will all go to the winner. The race was first run in 1901 and its winners have been Goldsmith, Irish Lad, Aristocracy, Sysonby, Mohawk II., and Salvidere. subscribers to the race this year and the two-yearolds they have nominated are as follows:

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Sally Cohen, the brown filly by Star Ruby-Afric Queen, which is carded to start for the first time n the second race at-Belmont Park tomorrow. full sister to Africander and likewise to Afric Jewel, but this latter fact is no particular honor. M. L. Hayman gave $1,600 for Sally Cohen at the sale of the Rancho del Paso yearlings last summer. New Garter, the chestnut gelding by Golden Garter—Lovelette, entered in the same race, is a stable mate of Sally Cohen and was also foaled at Rancho del Paso. Mr. Hayman paid $800 for New Garter. He is a half brother to Amabit, a winner in England, and his dam is a half sister to Girdle, Mon Amour and Shady Lad.

Winnetka, the other beginner in this race, is a half sister to Clare Russell. She is by Griffon, out of Clare Duncan, and J. L. McGinnis paid $700 for her at the sale of the Dixiana Farm yearlings.

There are three youngsters named in the Maiden Stakes that have never before been carded to race Harcourt, the bay colt by Ben Brush-Costume, is ne of the lot from Castleton Stud sold by James R. Keene last fall. R. L. Thomas bought him for $650. He is a full brother to Fancy Dress, Lois Cavanagh, the bay filly by Hastings—Aurata, is a half sister to Amberjack and Auray. She is a castoff from the Nursery Stud and was sold to Charles Oxx for $500.

Aimee C., the bay filly by Watercolor—Maiden Poem, is a half sister to Clark Griffith and that is one reason why she is in the stable of Frank J. Farrell, who paid $750 for her at the sale of the Elmendorf Stud yearlings last September.

The track has been opened to the trainers and from now on there will be something doing in the way of work every day, though the horses will not begin to come in in large numbers for another

TALE OF A WINNING HUNCH.

In one of the downtown office buildings where brokers who like to bet on the races congregate had a hunch on Glorifier for Metropolitan Handicap which resulted in the loss of $2,500 to a poolroom near by. The colored man had a newspaper with the "dope," and showed "Glorifier, 5, 119, McCormick, black belt." "There it is, boss," he said to a broker. "The 5 stands for the fifth month, the 9 is for the ninth day of the month, and the 11 is lucky. There are nine letters in 'Glorifier,' in 'McCormick' and 'black belt,' so how can you beat him? Gimme 50 cents and I'll play him." The broker handed over the then told his frieneds of the hunch A purse of $100 was made up quickly and 25 to 1 was obtained in a poolroom not many miles away.

If the colored man comes around again with any safe to say that he can name his own terms .- New York Sun.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresse of senders will not be answered or noticed.]

C. J., Chicago. The Blandy place bet in the Metropolitan Handicap was a draw.
R. L. B., St. Louis, Mo. Undoubtedly the bookmaker should pay that bet. Being for another person, it did not come under the provisions of your agreement.

A. G. McC., Chicago. Place and show bets Tokalon in the Metropolitan Handicap were dra for the reason that there was no separate place show betting against her.

Winner—B. f., by March—Cancha (trained by W. L. Lewis).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Lady Carol, away slowly, moved up resolutely after going a half and, saving ground when turning into the stretch, came away in the final furlong and won well in hand. Black Fox had to go wide most of the way, but stood a hard drive well and was going fast at the end. Airship, clear of interference, showed the most early speed, then tired in the stretch and came again at the end in time to get third place. Refined quit badly after being a prominent contender for a half. Carew ran fairly well. Hardshot can do better. Demo was away poorly and had scant chance. The winner was entered for $600; no bid. Scratched—(6856)Cliffon Forge, 105; 68232 Devout, 110; 68669 Ralbert, 121; 68597 Husted, 107; 68213)Rather Royal, 110.

Winner—Blk. c, by Top Gallant—Isabinda (trained by W. Wells).

Went to post at 4:01. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. The Minks, running to his best form and aided by good handling, was a forward contender from the start, had to go wide into the stretch and, standing a hard drive gamely, just lasted long enough. Brancas began slowly and trailed far back in the early stages, then came fast and was going gamely near the end when he had, to be taken back and this caused him to be beaten. Harry Scott ran a good race and appeared a certain winner in the stretch, but tired slightly near the end and swerved to the inner rail. John L. Inglis suffered from slight interference in the early stages, but moved up well after going three-quarters and swerved slightly near the end and this probably was responsible for his defeat. Mortiboy and Miss Lida raced each other into exhaustion in the first three-quarters.

Scratched—(68598)Pink Star, 108; (68134)Gargantua, 99.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Saracinesca followed Jack Atkin closely for a half, then dashed into the lead and, drawing away, won cantering. Jack Atkin was speedy and was a game contender throughout, but could not give the winner so much weight. Welbourne ran forwardly throughout, but just lasted long enough to save third place from the fast coming Inquisitor. The latter ran sluggishly for a half and trailed far in the rear, then moved up and finished with a rush. Voorhees quit and ran far below his best form.

Stroker, suddenly improved, got off flying and, setting the pace fast, was never headed and won gamely, holding his own. Sanguine was always in closest pursuit of the winner and finished fast and resolutely under a good ride, but could not get up. Coligny soon got into nearest pursuit of Good and Plenty and, passing him at the next to the last jump, won going away. Good and Plenty easily showed the way until two jumps from home, then was taken into the deepest going and tired and probably needed this race to fit him. Tom Cogan fenced well, but was a distant third. Realm ran out after taking the fifth jump, but was taken back and went the course.

OTH COOK AND HAYES HORSES WILL GO THIS WEEK, AND WE WILL be in for a bet on each. The big one goes Tuesday, and from all indications we will get a price against it, and I feel confident we will "cop the glue" again this week, for, if I could explain to you in detail what is coming off, you would not hesitate in going to the limit, but discretion does not permit. To prospective subscribers I will simply say: "Give me a trial and judge for yourself."

REMEMBER TUESDAY, MAY 14th.

THERE WAS NO SPECIAL YESTERDAY.

$5.00 for Six Wires.

Learn How to Bet and Win!

From now until June first I will instruct a limited number of students in the art and science of beating the races. The course embraces every branch of turf speculation—booking, handicapping and betting, containing nearly one hundred systems, with comments on each. In this number will be found systems suitable to all temperaments and pocketbooks. One system, published for the first time, is employed by the shrewdest operators in the west, winning $30,000 for him the past seventeen months. This offer has no parallel in the annals of turf advertising and is worth thousands of dollars to the man who plays the races. If you paid the current prices for these systems, it would cost you several thousand dollars. This course contains other matter of inestimable value to the turf speculator. For a limited time and for a small consideration I will place at your disposal the means of obtaining a complete turf education. This ad is sufficiently clear, therefore circulars are unnecessary, and if you want in, send your tellion by first mail, as a limited number of students will be accepted. TUITION $10. Address R. S. LAVIS, Box 678, Knoxville, Tenn.
